AUDITORIUM TODAY.

A first class programme of new acts and the latest pictures is what the Auditorium is offering for the last half of this week. While not the largest house in point of size, the Auditorium is undoubtedly the largest in patronage, and the entire capacity of the house is taxed almost every night in the week.

Valveno and LaMoore, a pair of elev er aurobatic comedians, will be seen in their funny act. Both of the men are good tumblers, and in addition are fun-ny comedians. An important feature of every Wed.

nesday and Thursday's programme is the Animated Weekly, which Frank Winch, the world's greatest publicity promoter, has termed the Visualized Newspaper. Today the Auditorium will show No. 1. There are 14 subjects in today's moving picture newspaper.

An extra good single turn is Priscilla in a novel singing a-t that is unique and original. We will not say any more about this set now, but you will talk about it after you have seen it.
